Our Mission Statement: The All Saints Catholic Community is a fully integrated, multicultural community with English as its unifying language. It is an open, warm, welcoming, inclusive community that prays together and celebrates its unity in diversity.

February 28, 2010 Second Sunday of Lent

Readings during the current liturgical year are those for Year C

Genesis 15:5-12 , 17-18 • Psalm 27:1, 7-9, 13-14 • Philippians 3:17—4:1 • Luke 9:28-36

Look up at the sky and count the stars, if you can. Genesis 15:5

We take enormous risks by seeing human beings as things, as objects, not respecting them, exploiting them, humiliating them, abusing them. If priests abuse children and young people, I would like to know where they see God's image in their victims. How can one abuse a human being and still proclaim the good news of God's love for his creation? How can you abuse and not see God's image in the one you abuse? This is not a phenomenon for priests alone, abuse is going on in all parts of our society – it is just all the more shocking if it is done by a priest. By a priest who proclaims that we are created, that we are God's image. So not taking into account God's love for us, forgetting that all of us are God's image is a dead end road.

OUR COMMUNITY: The All Saints Catholic Community is based on the principle that we, the Community, willingly take on all the responsibilities of running our own Community and supporting our Celebrants. The All Saints Coordinators, whose contact telephone numbers are shown overleaf, guide groups of volunteers in meeting our needs and those of our Celebrants. Please volunteer to help that group to which you feel you can most contribute. Contact the All Saints Coordinator responsible for the group.

We pray for the victims of child abuse
