October 23, 2011, Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Exodus 22:20-26; Psalm 18:2-4, 47, 51; 1 Thessalonians 1:5-10; Matthew 22:34-40

There is a story about a man who runs out to meet a monk who is passing by the village. 'Give me the stone,' he cries, 'the precious stone.' The monk says, 'What stone are you talking about?' The man says, 'Last night God appeared to me in a dream and said, "A monk will be passing by the village at noon tomorrow, and if he gives you a rock that he is carrying with him, you will be the richest man in the country." So give me the stone!'

The monk reached into his sack and took out a diamond; the biggest diamond in the world, the size of a human head! And he said, 'Is this the stone you want? I found it in the forest. Take it.' The man seized the stone and went running home. But he couldn't sleep that night. Very early the next morning he went to where the monk was sleeping under a tree, woke him up, and said, 'Here's your diamond back. I want the kind of wealth that enables you to throw wealth away.'

The All Saints Coordinators, whose contact telephone numbers are shown over-leaf, guide groups of volunteers in meeting our needs and those of our Celebrants. Please volunteer to help that group to which you feel you can most contribute. Contact the All Saints Coordinator responsible for the group.
