Our Mission Statement: The All Saints Catholic Community is a fully integrated, multicultural community with English as its unifying language. It is an open, warm, welcoming, inclusive community that prays together and celebrates its unity in diversity.

June 2, 2013 The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Genesis 14:18:-20 • Psalm 110:1-4 • 1 Corinthians 11:23-26 • Luke 9:11b-17

God, help us

God, help me to see.

God, help me to see your wonders.

God, help me to see your goodness all around me.

God, help me to be fearless.

God, help me to be fearless in my seeing.

God, help me to be fearless in seeing whatever is there.

God, help me to see the dignity and wonder of my sisters and brothers.

God, help me to see the dignity and wonder of people as they are.

God, help me to see the dignity and wonder even when I am overwhelmed by my judgments.

God, help me to be part of the world.

God, help me to be part of the world in its beauty and goodness.

God, help me to be part of the world in its diversity and mystery.

God, give me the courage to look at the sin of the world.

God, give me the courage to look at the sin of the world with a loving heart.

God, give me the courage to look at the sin of the world with a forgiving spirit.

God, heal our violence, racism, sexism, militarism, greed, and pride.

God, heal our cultures, our nations, our rivalry, our jealousy.

God, heal our political institutions, our governments, our political parties, and our religions.

God, heal our limited perspective and open our eyes wide.

God, heal our narrowness and let our vision include the whole world.

God, heal our tiny projects and make them projects for the big world.

God, make us new.

God, make our institutions new.

God, make all things new and renewed.
