We Remember the Berlin Airlift

God, in deep gratitude we stand before you. The Berlin Airlift is a great gift of reconciliation which was offered to the people of Berlin only a few years after the end of the Second World War. We thank all those members of the Allied Forces who worked day and night and often in great danger, for their friendship and the assistance that was given to this city. Let us not forget. Grant that the teaching of Jesus Christ about loving our neighbors, about Peace and Reconciliation be brought to our world in the future. Yours be the Glory forever and ever.

Daily Prayer, 65th Anniversary of the Berlin Airlift at the Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial Church
May 11, 2014

Creed

We believe that God is like a good shepherd for us.

God cares for us and supports us.

God protects us from evil, and promises us a life of abundance.

We believe that Jesus Christ is the door to the Father in heaven.

This door is open to all and excludes no one from salvation.

We believe that the Holy Spirit is at work in men and women who speak of the kingdom of God and who act in a way that this kingdom can already be felt in this world.

We do not believe only for ourselves,
but we believe in the communion of the Church,
in which we all keep trying to discern
what is God's will for us,
God's will for our world.
