Christian love of neighbor and justice cannot be separated

According to the Christian message, our relationship to our neighbor is bound up with our relationship to God; our response to the love of God, saving us through Christ, is shown to be effective in our love and service of people.

Christian love of neighbor and justice cannot be separated.

For love implies an absolute demand for justice, namely a recognition of the dignity and rights of one's neighbor.

Justice attains its inner fullness only in love.

Because every person is truly a visible image of the invisible God and a sibling of Christ, the Christian finds in every person God himself and God's absolute demand for justice and love.

World Synod of Catholic Bishops, Justice in the World, 1971: n°34.
