Our Mission Statement: The All Saints Catholic Community is a fully integrated, multicultural community with English as its unifying language. It is an open, warm, welcoming, inclusive community that prays together and celebrates its unity in diversity.

April 22, 2012, Second Sunday of Easter

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19; Psalm 4:2, 4, 7-9; 1 John 2:1-5; Luke 24:35-48

Lord, you showed yourself to your disciples through many small signs:

the empty tomb, a shared meal, the breaking of the bread...

Make us attentive to small signs of your presence in our daily lives.

We pray to you, our risen Lord.

Lord, you explained the scriptures to your friends and revealed them the meaning of your passion and death.

Open our minds and hearts to the deep meaning of your word.

We pray to you, our risen Lord.

Lord, you did not blame or condemn your apostles

for their moral failures, their betrayals and denials, but met them with a greeting of peace.

Help us to believe in your unshakeable love and friendship and live in the joy of your forgiveness.

We pray to you, our risen Lord.

Through your death and resurrection you want to bring peace to humanity.

Grant the miracle of peace to the people of Syria and Mali,
and to all who live in situations of conflict and war.

We pray to you, our risen Lord.

Lord, you descended to the dead

to set them free from the power of death.

Let all our dead taste the power of your resurrection.

We pray to you, our risen Lord.

P. Wolfgang Schonecke M. Afr.
