Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace.
 Where there is hatred, let me sow love,
 Where there is injury, pardon;
 Where there is doubt, faith;
 Where there is despair, hope;
 Where there is darkness, light;
 And where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,
 to be understood as to understand,
 to be loved, as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive,
 It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
 and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

St. Francis of Assisi

Tuesday Evening Lectio Divina Group - Diving into the Sunday Readings

Tuesdays @ 7.30 pm; During this pandemic, our prayer life — among other things — may have been disrupted. We've had to find different ways of praying without in-person community to support our faith life. The traditional monastic practice of Lectio Divina is a good way to help us deal with stress and provide a way to enter into sacred Scripture as a living Word for our time.

Women at the Well (Zoom Meeting)

Mondays @ 10.15 am; Women of all ages are welcome to join our "Women at the Well" group. We meet weekly on Monday mornings between 10.15 -11.15 am on Zoom, to pray the Psalms through Lectio Divina. God made us for community, to share His love, so this is also a time for laughter, friendship, support, encouragement and spiritual growth.

Did you know that All Saints is run entirely by volunteers?

We pride ourselves that we are a self-supporting parish, but new helping hands are always appreciated! Please consider joining one of the volunteer groups that make the community work, e.g.:

- Are you 16 years or older and think being a Lector is your cup of tea? Then contact Johannes Ploog.
- Altar Servers are always welcome – just turn to Konrad Giersdorf!
- The choir is always looking for more members too – just say hello to Johannes Wrembek!
- Enjoying this bulletin? Help our community to write short pieces of information and review with others the draft. Want to help? Don't hesitate to contact Seán Alfken.
